

ppt safe access zones statement

“Safe Access Zones put health equity first. These zones protect our clients’ right to access the services that they need without harassment. The intimidation tactics used by anti-choice protesters harm those accessing mental health, primary care, and abortion services alike. We commend Attorney General Yasir Naqvi for introducing a Bill that will safeguard reproductive choice and other healthcare services.”

– Sarah Hobbs Blyth, Executive Director Planned Parenthood Toronto

For more information or to set up an interview with Sarah Hobbs Blyth, Executive Director
please contact Chelsea Barnett, Communications Coordinator at
c. 438.874.0267 | e. cbarnett@ppt.on.ca | p. 416.961.0113 x125

*On October 4th please call 438.874.0267

choice is yours.